

From: bronwyn evans
To: info@frackinginquiry.wa.gov.au
Date: Friday, 2 March 2018 7:42:34 AM

Fracking processes world wide have been contaminating and depleting clean drinking water. These gas extraction processes are placing our aquifers, surface waters and food producing soils at risk in WA. The government should be protecting and preserving our important water resources like the Yarragadee aquifer, along with other state aquifers and our very important surface waters in WA. Do not allow this toxic industry to ruin our state.

Thank you
Bronwen Evans